

I would like the comission to consider rejecting any thought or restricting the content of satellite radio. These vesntures are wholely funded from private sources and are available for subscription only. Therefor there should be no regulation on this type of datastream.

Thank ou for your attention.